Headline:
A return to less cold but unsettled weather this week.

Today:
A frosty, icy but dry start on Tuesday, with some early sunny spells. Cloud soon thickening with rain, heavy at times, moving in from the west. Winds increasing through the afternoon. Maximum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Tonight:
Rain, heavy at times, continuing into the evening then moving away eastwards overnight to leave the early hours dry but largely cloudy. Breezy. Milder than of late. Minimum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Wednesday:
Dry and largely cloudy to start, with just a few brighter spells. Further rain moving in for the afternoon and evening, perhaps heavy later. Lighter winds. Maximum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Windy Thursday with rain, heavy at times. Wind and rain gradually easing later Friday. Largely dry Saturday but cold again with some sunny spells. Windy in the south.
